Karate Summer Camp will focus on physical fitness, confidence building, personal safety and awareness. Self-discipline and character building.

Each day will be filled with fun and exciting skill building drills and games. Traditional karate and self defense training, relay races, obstacle courses, fun games, basic self defense awareness, bully prevention and team work are some of the highlights of this Summer Camp.

Sensei James Stuber along with several other certified instructors from Karate Institute of America will take the children through all of these skill and character building events.

Each day will bring a new challenge.

At the end of the week long camp the students will perform a short demonstration of what they learned throughout the week. The presentation will be Friday night.

Space is limited ,so call and register soon!

Camp fee $175.00 for the first student,

each additional student in family will be $125.00
